Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-29, drawn to a system, classified in class 623, subclass 17.11.
- II. Claims 30-54, drawn to a method, classified in class 606, subclass 61.
- III. Claims 55-63, drawn to a guide, classified in class 606, subclass 96.
- IV. Claims 64-72, drawn to a device, classified in class 606, subclass 69.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Groups I, III and IV and Group II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed may be used to perform a materially different method. For example, the blocking member may be used to secure a fractured tibia.

Inventions Group III and Group IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination Group IV may be used separately since the device does not require the guide to be inserted within the vertebra. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions Groups III and IV and Group I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Group I, claim 1, does not require the elongated passage as required by Group III. The subcombination has separate utility such as securing a fractured tibia. Group I, claim 1, does not require a slot as required by Group III, claim 55. The subcombination as claimed has separate utility such as establishing a vascular access.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: figures 1 and 2 indicate one specie and figures 11 and 12 indicate a second specie.

If Applicant elects one of Groups I, II or IV, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. (If Applicant elects Group III, no election of species is required.) Currently, claims 1, 30 and 64 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

A telephone call was made to Doug Collier to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
